

Why Me Lord

Friends, one of my earliest memories of church is hearing "Why me Lord" by Kris Kristofferson for the first time. For some reason, this song has always resonated with me and has been a go to for me in my darkest times as if I knew early on this would be the "anthem" that would define my life.

The Questions

- What have I ever done to deserve even one of the pleasures I've known? To date, I have lived an extremely blessed life. I can honestly say I have never wanted anything I truly needed. I have a great wife, great family, great job and great friends. If anything, I have been overly blessed to the point where I realize those things alone don't satisfy.
- Tell me Lord, what did I ever do that was worth the kindness you've shown? Unfortunately, the majority of my "works" have been self/worldly centered...not Godly.

The Facts

- Lord help me Jesus, I've wasted it so help me Jesus, I know what I am. I (we) am a Hall of Shamer, prime time player, potential G.O.A.T, sinner in need of grace.
- I have always needed you Jesus and I know that my soul's in your hands. Add sincere and committed repentance and this line of the song is salvation in a nutshell.

My Plea

- Try me Lord If you think there's a way, I can try to repay all that I have taken from you.
- Maybe Lord, I can show someone else what I've been through myself on my way back to you.

I am stepping out on faith, and I don't know where this is headed, but I am confident where I am headed is a lot more promising than where I was headed before finding the Truth (Yashua).

So, this is me asking Adonai to try me if I can show someone else what I have been through myself on my way back to Him.

My Story

I was saved and baptized when I was 9 years old. Although a long time ago, I still remember the feeling when I accepted Jesus and I truly believed I was saved; however, I was still in my "age of innocence" and had not yet eaten from the tree of knowledge. As best I can recall, my "innocence" ended around the time I made a left hand turn on my way to the baseball field to visit my first "crush."

I have been eating the wrong fruits ever since. Looking for satisfaction in all the wrong places. Who am I? Why am I here? Does God exist? Am I a fool for even having the faith of the size of a mustard seed? As Christians, if we argue there must be a grand creator, who created the Creator? Why does God seem to give Satan so much access to us and allow him to deceive so many? Is what belief I have based on a genuine love for God or simply fear that he may be real, and I don't want to be cast into the pit? Why do some get more chances than others to accept God's grace? How can God be everywhere at once and manage all the prayers that are going 24/7? How did he create and how can he control the world with His words? What is up with all the commandments (rules)? Yada, yada, yada.

Until recently, God just did not seem logical to me. But Satan's conceit (specifically of late) has "enlightened" me. My confidence that the God (Yahuah) of the Bible/Israel is real has been permeated now that the devil is showing the world just how real he is.

Do you remember the so called "terrorists" being called cowards after 9/11? I don't know about you, but it would take a lot of faith and courage for me to fly a plane into a building (would not happen). It was not admiration, but their conviction caught my attention and I wondered just how brainwashed someone would have to be.

Well, I have had the same reaction with regards to the luciferians/satanists since being force fed their satanic messages daily on television, in our music, and in the media. I mean as sick and deranged as these people (???) are, they sure seem to have a lot of faith and confidence in whom they are obviously worshipping. I am embarrassed to say that I have not been living my life with the same conviction for God until now (can you feel me). I used to think it was satire or "artistic expression" or a sad cry for attention, but it is hard to deny now they truly seem to "believe" in satan, his lies, and his voodoo. I guarantee the puppet masters in the background have knowledge we don't that we would not believe (they can have it thank you very much).

Call Trump

I am guessing I have lost half of you by now and I am about to cut the remaining readers in half again. I have been there, but please bear with me. I promise if you do the time and do the research, you will also encounter a paradigm shift.

Until recently, I have never followed politics and I had never voted until 2020. I have always believed that stuff was rigged (well I was right about something) out of my control and I just needed to put my head down, hustle, work hard, and treat others the way I would want to be treated (love thy neighbor as thyself) regardless of which crook was in the white house. But for whatever reason, that changed after Trump got elected. I think the fact that I understood his style (at least I believed I did at the time) and business approach and respected the fact that he didn't seem to pull any punches combined with the immediate persecution he was put through starting day one got me to root for him.

Where some found him despicable, I loved the fact that he was not a "polished politician." From the beginning I said he is either the greatest patriot or the greatest fraud that has ever lived (unfortunately the latter is true). He said and did all the right things to appeal to my patriotic programming. His ability to get things done with so many against him was.... what is a good word.... impressive? Extraordinary? Maybe even supernatural (some of you may say God appointed)? A lot of words crossed my mind but coordinated/controlled were not initially one of them.

Sometime in the 12 months preceding the 2020 election I got into a discussion with one of my nephews about everything going on in the world including the upcoming election at which time he told me that he was confident that Chump (sorry I meant Trump, I was the chump) was not who he appeared to be. He told me Chump was a trojan horse and the best Jesuit actor money could buy (even the Simpsons knew this...we will cover another time).

I have always had a high opinion of my nephew, but I recall at the point in time thinking oh no he has lost his mind (admit it, many of you are thinking the same thing about me and him right now). I recall saying something along the lines I guess you are going to tell me that 9/11 was an inside job, we did not land on the moon and Michelle Obama is a man. He just smiled (maybe it was a smirk).

I was like, come on. 45? This man should go down in history as one of the greatest patriots of all time if not "the" greatest. I mean no one (right or left) can argue Chump is not one of the most viciously persecuted Americans who has ever lived. His response was, "Come on Uncle Ron, you are too discerning to be deceived like this." Stunned and intrigued I asked him to tell me more.

We chatted and he did not have all the answers yet, but he did not budge that Chump (I am just going to roll with this the rest of the way) was not who he is pretending to be. Somewhere along the line, he told me with sadness but sincerity in his voice that we have been lied to our whole lives (I have since come to understand that the “American Way” was designed to have us focus on materialism and our desires to take our eye off the prize Paul preached about.

He provided me links to a couple of videos, and I went home deeply concerned he had been exposed to too much religion or something. So, I decided I was going to dive deeper and save him from whatever nonsense had infiltrated his thinking.

So, I started watching Chump a bit more closely through the 2020 election and just could not fathom how anyone could think it made sense that everyone would attack him so hard if he was on their side.

NOTE: I initially had a couple of pages here outlining all the things I uncovered about Chump that are readily available to anyone who looks for it; however, I will touch on that in greater detail another time. But let’s say for now that it did not take long to realize my nephew was right and Chump is the snake in the poem he likes to recite so much (You knew who I was and let me in anyway).

Initially the truth devastated me, but it caused me to dig more (my nephew did not point me in a particular direction...any research included in this is based 100% stoking the midnight oil and then checking against other sources prior to sharing with you) and the more I dug the more the Truth became apparent to me and has set me free (politically but more important spiritually). So, Mr. Chump, I thank you...not for saving America, but being a catalyst that has resulted in my true salvation and turning back to God (I am thankful God gave me the opportunity to return as one of his many prodigal sons).

I have researched a lot of history as of late and it is apparent the devil has recycled the same game plan repeatedly since the garden. He established the Catholic Church (if you doubt what I am implying, research Constatine’s dream and you tell me)/organized religion and has been using it to mix in subtle but deadly lies to deceive “Christians” into believing they are worshipping God as he intended and their salvation is secured.

I mean, if you were the prince of lies and the greatest deceiver this world will ever know, what would bring you more enjoyment....having someone perish because they did not believe in God or perish thinking they would inherit the earth only to be quoted Matthew 7:21-23 on judgment day. Satan hates God and hates us. He knows where he is going and he wants to take as many of us with him as possible. Where We Go One We Go All sound familiar?

Extra Credit: This will help point you in the right direction with regards to the roles the Chumps/Tuckers/Alexs/Elons/etc.: Operation Trust. If someone has a large platform (right or left), they are most likely (I think maybe 100%) part of Operation Trust. Yes, Glenn Becker, Matthew Walsh, Majorie Green, etc. are all bought and paid for and playing roles to keep us divided and hanging on the hopes that Chump will save the day. Spoiler alert....the only one who will save the day is Jesus (Yashua). The great news is we already know He does.

Potential Wisdom

I have a lot I can share and may do so later; however, my primary goal today is to share the following with you. Interpret it any way you like...I am not claiming to know the world is about to end...I am just sharing what I have come across recently.

Research the “synagogue of satan” referenced by Jesus in the Bible. I have inadvertently stumbled across some form of refence to this group and their bloodlines described by Jesus in just about everything I have researched to date. I am sure that I am wrong in a lot of areas, but I am confident I have a decent understanding of the “gist” of what is going on.

Based on Jesus's accuracy of the 2nd destruction of the temple in 70 AD and other prophecies that came to pass in the Bible, I ask you to consider the potential ramifications of the following looking at our world today.

- The Bible indicates that a day is like a thousand years to God and a thousand years is like a day.
 - Please watch

Things Happening Now

- There are talks of the temple being built for 3rd time (end times trigger based on the Bible).
- New World Order, intentional damage to key supply chains (which will result in more wars and famine), train derailments organized by our government, discussions of one world religion (and it won't be Christianity at least in the true sense), etc. on the news every day.
- The Euphrates River has dried up (another biblical sign).
- Musk (spoiler alert like Chump, not a God guy) starting to push transhumanism (like Chump with the vaccine, I think Musk trusting him to accept transhumanism is his main purpose in the plan).
- Predictive programming. The luciferians/satanists are telling us their narrative of what is coming.
- The mystery of lawlessness is amongst us.

Things that make you go Hmmm.

- Luciferians/satanists believe they must tell you what they are doing when deceiving you to avoid karmic retribution. Personally, I think he has to follow God's rules just like had to with Job. God gives us free will so Satan has to let us know he is deceiving us to give us a chance.
 - Controversy regarding Luciferase...what controversy? Out of all the names, why would anyone pick this one?
 - Digital currency being discussed to be placed in hand or forehead.
 - The Simpsons creator is a 33rd degree Free Mason and is in the "know"...or a time traveler, do your research and you tell me.
 - MAGA is a high ranking official (refer to Luciferase above...not coincidence just saying) in the.... click on the MAGA link to the left and wait for it.
 - I promise you have I have pages more showing you who Chump truly is and my wife would say start with any of it other than this. But please consider:
 - Reagan and Clinton both are on record of utilizing "make America great again" but the acronym MAGA is solely associated with Chump.
 - Chump's every move is scrutinized and taken out of context by the media when the opportunity arises. Yet, I am guessing this is the first time you have ever been shown the MAGA association with the church of satan. The first time I was shown this I researched it on Google and found it on page 9 or so. Do you know what is on page 9 of Google? The truth. You don't think a journalist has stumbled across this yet? If they were truly after him, this would be blasted all over the place and Trump followers would be labeled satanists.
 - No one on his staff caught wind with this association and said uhhhh Mr. Trump, we have a problem?
 - I have complimented Trump that he is just narcissistic enough at his age to see the glory in getting assassinated "saving" America. But what does it say about him as a husband and a father. I mean if he is legit, Baron (hmmmm I wonder who he may have been named after.... the answer may be towards the bottom of the article linked to in the next bullet)

- More Extra Credit (I can point you to tons of stuff just like this)
 - Research Trump and Free Masonry
 - Research Norman Vincent Peale
 - Research Norman Vincent Peale and Trump (Fred and Donald)
 - Research the address of the Chump Tower
 - Research Trump and Tesla
 - Research Gates and the Spanish Flu

I know, all this stuff (plus the 100s of other similarities I can share with you) are just coincidences and I am an idiot. One of my best friends growing up told me once to be cautious when convicted because I could be the one who is too ignorant to realize I am ignorant. Regardless, these revelations have strengthened my faith and if this is ignorance....it truly is bliss, and I don't want to be "asleep".

I am going to stop here for now. I have a lot I can share that I promise you will at least find entertaining if not enlightening and I would love to share if you are curious and/or currently searching. Please send me an email with your phone # and we will touch base. If you think I have lost my mind and/or are not interested in my epiphanies, please let me know and I will remove you from my "enlightenment" list.

Once you realize we are surrounded by satan worshippers and it is not about right or left, Republican or Democrat but a war for our souls, you will realize that winter is coming (more predictive programming brought to you by the synagogue of satan). Even if the biblical portion of this is wrong, these psychotic $@#%&^&&^%& believe it and we are running out of time.

I plan on pulling together all my notes on various topics related to all of this and posting to this website as I complete them. In the interim, please refer to my document entitled "Truth Unedited."

Thank you for hanging out with me. I strongly encourage you not to dismiss this information. I am sure that it is not all accurate, but I am confident that I have a strong understanding of the gist of everything going on (I guess that is what all of us conspiracy theorists say). Please read the Bible and do your own research. At worst case scenario, you will further develop your relationship with the Father and the Son which will help you prepare for what is coming (and it is not winter and there is no pre-trib rapture).
